The Revised Fifth Edition of "Copyright, Patent, Trademark and Related State Doctrines: Cases and Materials on the Law of Intellectual Property" is a legal casebook that offers an in-depth examination of the various aspects of intellectual property. Featuring new and updated cases, this revised edition details the differences between copyright, patent and trademark law. Subjects covered include state and federal intellectual property laws, unfair competition, trade secrets, rights of publicity and more. This new, revised edition also studies modern intellectual property issues, such as protection of computer programs and industrial design.

About the Author Paul Goldstein is the Lillick Professor of Law at Stanford University.
