John N. Hartson, Brenda J. Payne : Creating Effective Parenting Plans: A Developmental Approach for Lawyers and Divorce Professionals before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Creating Effective Parenting Plans: A Developmental Approach for Lawyers and Divorce Professionals:

According to these pediatric psychologists, the best interest of the child calls for a developmentally appropriate parenting plan-that is, custody that accurately reflects the child's physical and psychological development. Even now this concept often faces courtroom challenges as it can conflict with the traditional lawyer-client relationship. This book explores developing alternate parenting schedules (or custody) with the child's best interest and developmental needs considered first.
