

(Read now) Creating the Good Will: The Most Comprehensive Guide to Both the Financial and Emotional Sides of Passing on Your Legacy

Creating the Good Will: The Most Comprehensive Guide to Both the Financial and Emotional Sides of Passing on Your Legacy

Elizabeth Arnold

*ebooks | Download PDF | ePub | DOC | audiobook

Download

Read Online

#2391320 in Books Portfolio Hardcover 2005-12-29 2005-12-29 Original language: English PDF # 1 8.50 x 1.03 x 5.80l, 1.10 #File Name: 1591841194272 pages | File size: 72.Mb

Elizabeth Arnold : Creating the Good Will: The Most Comprehensive Guide to Both the Financial and Emotional Sides of Passing on Your Legacy before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Creating the Good Will: The Most Comprehensive Guide to Both the Financial and Emotional Sides of Passing on Your Legacy:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great book
By Sheldon J. Howe
Highly recommend this book to read before getting a will made. It contains important topics that you should consider before making the investment in getting a will done. Well worth the cost of the book.
2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Creating the Good Will
By Janey
This book was great. Helpful, easy to read, and with lots of good advice and insight. I've shared copies with 5 people, and will order more. Really helps identify some pitfalls in estate planning. Wish my Mom had used it!
13 of 13 people found the following review helpful. The Good Will helps create a holistic will
By CAROL B. BURSACK
Creating the Good Will is an eye opener. As an elder care columnist/speaker/author I've read and written about this subject many times. As a veteran of 20 years of caregiving, I've had to deal with a lot of end-of-life paperwork. Elizabeth Arnold has written the most readable, well-rounded and compassionate book on end-of-life planning that I've read, and she's made it enjoyable, as well. Her gift for stories, which I believe are the best teachers, makes this book come alive. I recommend it to anyone interested in the subject - which we all should be.
Carol Bradley Bursack
Minding Our Elders: Caregivers Share Their Personal Stories[...]

A breakthrough approach to wills and estates, designed to help you make the hard decisions while keeping your family happy
In the world of wills and estate planning, tax saving and asset protection are typically the paramount goals; family dynamics, emotions, and leaving a meaningful legacy are secondary considerations at best. The result, predictably, is often bickering, backstabbing, unmet expectations, and even litigation after the will is read. Creating the Good Will focuses on the issues that most books in this category miss but that matter most in the end. As a former estate planning attorney and now as a coach, Elizabeth Arnold has dedicated her career to helping people develop wills and estate plans that create harmony, not havoc. She puts the emotional well-being of loved ones ahead of clever tax-saving structures and teaches readers how to protect their relationships and values as much as their hard assets. In this unique book, Arnold explains how to deal with the emotional baggage and communication blindspots that can undo even the most iron-clad legal document. Filled with resonant anecdotes from her personal and professional life, along with practical information about wills, estate plans, guardianship agreements, trusts, and more, Creating the Good Will is a priceless resource for anyone who wants to leave a legacy of warmed hearts, not heated heads.

If you are estate planning for your family's well-being, this is the most holistic and human approach I have ever seen. With this practical book you'll leave much more value and legacy behind than just a checkbook! (Stephen Pollan, author of Die Broke)
Easy to understand and more importantly, easy to use, this book is a must for all of us who think about the future of our loved ones and the variety of things we wish to leave behind. (Kathy Wiseman, Georgetown Family Center)
Elizabeth Arnold is a trustworthy guide for showing us how to solve all the human and financial choices that must be made. (Grace Gabe, M.D., author of Making Adult Stepfamilies Work)
About the Author
Elizabeth Arnold is the founder of Sowing Seeds, a consulting firm that offers clients an innovative approach to wills and estate plans. She has a law degree from Harvard University, an LLM in taxation from New York University, and a BA in religious studies from Yale. Arnold has been quoted by The New York Times, USA Today, Time, Better Homes and Gardens, and many other media outlets.