Alexander W. Russell, Ernest C. Hope : Davenport's California Will And Estate Planning Legal Forms Booklet before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Davenport's California Will And Estate Planning Legal Forms Booklet:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Missing Information on Trust as a part of an Estate PlanBy channing hawkinsIt doesn't have information on creating Trust in California. They gave an excuse that most people don't need a trust and may be an unnecessary step because the person may not make enough money for it to make sense in their estate plan. That may be true, but for some individuals who are preparing for their plans it would be a helpful tool. They should provide information which explains the pros and cons of trust and the information for creating. Once the authors include that information, it would be a more useful and comprehensive book. IMO.

This publication written by lawyers and published by Davenport Press lets people in California quickly complete a legally valid and binding Will and other Estate Planning legal documents. Estate Planning concerns how to control upon illness or death one's health care, end of life issues, property and money, children and dependents, funeral and burial, and much more. The ready-to-use legal forms provided and for free download include: 1. California Statutory Will (lets one give orders to at death control property, guardians for children and dependents, and other matters); 2. Advance Health Care Directive (lets a person be named to control ones health care if needed and lets health care instructions be given); 3. California Statutory Form Power of Attorney (lets powerful powers be given to another person over ones finances and property to let them sign binding documents and help with various matters); 4. Authorization To Consent To Medical Treatment Of A Minor (lets power be given to another person to authorize medical and dental care of a minor in case parents are not present); 5. Power of Attorney For Care Of Child (allows broad power over a child and their property be given to a person in case parents are not present); and 6. Caregivers Authorization (lets a non-parent caring and living with a child control their schooling and health care). This booklet's Appendix also explains how people can instantly download the legal forms to any computer.
