Alexander W Russell, Ernest C Hope : Davenport's Wisconsin Will And Estate Planning Legal Forms Booklet before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Davenport's Wisconsin Will And Estate Planning Legal Forms Booklet:

This publication written by lawyers and published by Davenport Press lets people in Wisconsin quickly complete a valid and binding Will and other Estate Planning legal documents. Estate Planning concerns how to control upon illness or death one's health care, property and money, children and dependents, and other matters. To avoid problems including with any probate process this booklet uses forms written by the Wisconsin legislature for people or uses forms with standard legal language. Legal forms provided include: 1. Wisconsin Basic Will (lets person give orders to at death control ones property, guardians for children and dependents, and other matters); 2. Self-Proving Affidavit (optional document done with a Will to avoid people later having to show a Will was signed correctly); 3. Power Of Attorney For Health Care (lets person be named to control ones health care if needed and lets one give health care instructions); 4. Declaration To Physicians (Wisconsin Living Will) (document done to give instructions in case ever in terminal or long-term unconscious condition); 5. Wisconsin Statutory Form Power of Attorney For Finances And Property (allows powerful powers be given to another person over ones finances and property to let them help with these things); 6. Power of Attorney Delegating Parental Power (gives to another person power over children like medical care often done if parents are absent); and 7. Authorization For Final Disposition (lets person be named to control funeral and burial and lets instructions be given for this). These 7 forms are sufficient for most people. Book buyers can download a copy of all these forms free to a computer and printer to use.
