P. H. Collin : Dictionary of Law before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Dictionary of Law:

From prison slang to technical French and Latin terms, this comprehensive law dictionary defines both American and British legal terms, covering areas such as criminal, civil, commercial, and international law. This revised second edition covers more than 7,000 entries and will prove useful to law students and attorneys, the ESL market, and other professionals.
