Suzanne L. Hillier : Divorce - A Guided Tour before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Divorce - A Guided Tour:

When marital bliss erodes to a living hell on earth, the path from altar to courtroom door is littered with pitfalls from which the unwary may find there is no escape. Battered husbands, transvestite cops, betrayed and jealous wives, and asset hiding spouses---Suzanne Hillier has seen them all in her over 30 years in Divorce work. She examines the issues facing both parties and children of failed marriages and sugar coats her advice pills so you can digest them in the easiest way possible by relating anecdotes of some of her clients who did it all wrong as opposed to those who did it all right, together with strategies to avoid all those rough spots.No one is spared...including certain lawyers and judges. It`s frank, funny, irreverent, and really informative. A GUIDED TOUR through the do`s and don`ts of the divorce process.

About the AuthorSuzanne L. Hillier is a graduate of McGill University and did post- graduate studies at Columbia University. She earned post-graduate degrees in English (MA) Law (LLB) from the University of Toronto. In addition to her certifications as a high school teacher and matrimonial mediator, she engaged in the practice of Divorce law for over 30 years in partnership with her daughter Ava, a personal injury lawyer, in Brampton, Ontario, Canada. She was a highly regarded trial lawyer credited with several reported high court decisions. Although currently retired, she retains her interest in matrimonial law, still attending seminars and maintaining relationships with past clients. The mother of 3; the grandmother of 6 and the great grandmother of 2, she divides her time between Rancho Mirage, California and Caledon, Ontario.
