Walter Wortberg : Do I Have an Environmental Disease?: Recognition and Prevention of the Causes of Cancer and Chronic Diseases- before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Do I Have an Environmental Disease?: Recognition and Prevention of the Causes of Cancer and Chronic Diseases-:

Despite new scientific possibilities in diagnostics and therapy, chronic diseases including cancer continue to increase dramatically. This is not only a threat to peoples health, but also a financial problem. A new perspective is necessary: instead of treating symptoms, more causal research needs to be conducted, taking into account environmental causes for these diseases. Citing numerous examples, the study makes a strong case for therapy beyond classic academic medicine and encourages those affected by environmental stress to take their health into their own hands.

About the AuthorWalter Wortberg was a medical practitioner for general, environmental and tropical medicine, as well as acupuncture and neuropathic treatment until 2003. He is particularly interested in occupational politics, gerontology (Max-Brger-Preis 1986) and environmental medicine.
