An absolute credit to the specialization of Entertainment Law practice ...By Defamed Screenwriter in CAAn absolute credit to the specialization of Entertainment Law practice in the USA in 2015. As a litigator of 27+ years where intellectual property always enters the discourse and litigations that arise in the Entertainment Industries, Sherri Burr is the legal professional you want on your shelf before and after the bar examination in your daily practice and is so much more than mere dealmaking, copyright discourse, intellectual property generics but hones in on unique matters that arise in modern day packaging, distribution, financing and streaming across multiple platforms that the Industry expects and demands of practitioners. A must-read and have in your library for any legal professional.

This exciting new book contains discussions of cases, interviews with celebrities, and other materials that help educate readers about the complicated entertainment business. To capture first-hand knowledge of the entertainment business, Burr conducted interviews throughout the United States, Australia, England, Germany, Spain, and Switzerland. Celebrities featured in the book include Academy Award and Grammy winners, as well as best-selling authors and TV stars. The volume opens with a chapter on the globalization of the entertainment industry and explains how mastering U.S. entertainment law helps qualify lawyers to work abroad.
