book for anyone in the processing of planning their estate. If you're looking for peace of mind and find the process of planning confusing and overwhelming this book is for you. Peters approach is very simple and easy to understand.

Where will it all go after you die? Deciding how you want your possessions to be distributed after you pass away is one of the most important decisions you will make in your lifetime. What happens to your property? Your investments? Who will take care of the pet that becomes part of the family? Proper estate planning can give you peace of mind and prevent years of bitter, divisive family battles after you pass away. Going new school by storing your documents on a mobile device, computer or in the Cloud can also help make matters easier once you pass away. In Estate Planning and the Modern Family: Old School Meets New School, Attorney Peter Moustakis tells you what you need to know before you meet with an estate planning attorney to draw up a plan that is right for you.

About the Author Attorney Peter A. Moustakis founded the Law Office of Peter A. Moustakis, LLC in 2011. His firm is committed to helping families through different legal matters as their lives unfold. Whether it is through the purchase of a new home, the preparation of a Will or dealing with the loss of a loved one, the Law Office of Peter A. Moustakis, LLC is committed to providing the legal counsel necessary. Peter understands the responsibility and trust that comes with representing a person through what is often the most difficult time in his or her life. He considers himself a true Counselor-at-law whose purpose is to provide his clients with guidance and an understanding of the law. Peter strives to establish a client-oriented practice that focuses on listening and empathizing with clients while also helping them sort through their issues and concerns. His law firm has grown over the last few years and he is excited to see the practice continue to grow. Peter A. Moustakis graduated from New England Law | Boston where he attended the night program in order to work as a paralegal during the day. While attending law school, he was awarded the honor of New England Scholar and achieved the Cali Excellence for the Future Award for his excellence in Estate Planning. Peter has also contributed to two Family Law publications. Peter enjoys volunteering in his local community, woodworking and various equine activities. He is supported by his loving wife and family.
