White House Domestic Policy Council, U.S. Department of Justice : Expanding Access to Justice, Strengthening Federal Programs before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Expanding Access to Justice, Strengthening Federal Programs:

This Report is the Whitehouse-Legal Aid Interagency Roundtable (WH-LAIR) first annual report to the President. Part I provides an overview of civil legal aid and WH-LAIR; Part II details WH-LAIR agencies efforts to improve their programs by incorporating legal aid; and Part III outlines WHLAIRs plans for the future. The Report demonstrates that the 22 members of WH-LAIR have taken significant steps to integrate civil legal aid into their programs designed to serve low-income and vulnerable individuals, where doing so can improve their effectiveness and increase access to justice. The strategies that agencies deploy to advance WH-LAIRs mission largely fall into four categories: 1) leveraging resources to strengthen Federal programs by incorporating legal aid; 2) developing policy recommendations that improve access to justice; 3) facilitating strategic partnerships to achieve Federal enforcement
