Families and Businesses (Inside the Minds):

Family and Business Succession Planning provides an authoritative, insider's perspective on counseling families and closely held businesses during the current volatile economy and estate tax law uncertainty. Featuring experienced partners from law firms across the country, this book provides best practices for creating and implementing a succession plan that is individualized to achieve a client's specific goals and objectives. From gathering data and negotiating with family members to discussing possible ramifications and establishing timetables, these top lawyers detail the steps in the planning process. They also give tips on handling litigation issues, forming successful trusts, working with GRATs, and preparing tax strategies. Additionally, these leaders discuss how they are rethinking traditional estate planning, developing innovative solutions to common challenges, and advising today's clients on transition planning. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today, as these experienced lawyers offer up their thoughts on the keys to success within this ever-changing field. Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business intelligence from C-Level executives and lawyers (Chairman, CEO, CFO, CMO, Partner) from the world's most respected companies and firms nationwide. Each chapter is comparable to an essay/thought leadership piece and is a future-oriented look at where an industry, profession, or topic is heading and the most important issues for the future. Each author has been selected based upon their experience and C-level standing within the professional community. Chapters Include: 1. Randall J. Holmgren, Attorney and Counselor at Law, Jones Waldo Holbrook McDonough PC - "Twenty-First Century Business Succession Planning Strategies" 2. Christopher P. Siegle, Shareholder, Ryley Carlock Applewhite PC - "Facing the New Economy in 2010 with Effective Strategies for Businesses and Estate Plans" 3.
