An essential guide to living and dying in Florida. This is a book that will guide everyone through the bureaucracy that has grown up around nursing homes, Social Security, Medicare and all the other details that face many of Florida's elderly. --LUCY MORGAN, Senior Correspondent, Tampa Bay Times This is a valuable, up-to-date road map of the complex legal and financial issues faced by senior citizens in Florida. It is well-organized and well-written. It is not, however, a substitute for individual expert advice. It will help individuals focus on areas that apply to their particular circumstances. --Eric Pfeiffer M.D., Founding Director, Eric Pfeiffer Suncoast Alzheimer's Center, University of South Florida College of Medicine; author of 14 Winning Strategies for Successful Aging This updated version of the Florida Senior Legal Guide is essential reading for all Florida residents that will be dealing with elder care issues. --David M.
