

(Read and download) Florida Senior Legal Guide - 5th Edition (Senior Law Series)

Florida Senior Legal Guide - 5th Edition (Senior Law Series)

Gregory G. Gay, Esq.

*ebooks | Download PDF | ePub | DOC | audiobook

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE

#14904697 in Books 2011-04-01Original language:EnglishPDF # 1 11.00 x 8.75 x .251, 1.02 #File Name: 1929397135144 pages | File size: 56.Mb

Gregory G. Gay, Esq. : Florida Senior Legal Guide - 5th Edition (Senior Law Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Florida Senior Legal Guide - 5th Edition (Senior Law Series):

This one of a kind resource to LIFETIME PLANNING contains up-to-date information necessary to make accurate legal decisions for you and your loved ones. Questions such as what should be included in a living will or prenuptial agreement and when you can avoid the income tax on the sale of your home are answered in this complete guide. This lifetime Planning Guide is loaded with practical, easy-to-use information such as: New Federal Estate and Gift Tax Laws effective for 2010 through 2011 The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (National Health Care Law) Inherited IRA s and the Conduit IRA Trust laws New Medigap Policies Florida citizens now have a desk reference that explains the new state and federal laws that specifically affect them in health care, estate and disability planning decisions. A few of the other important subjects covered include: Planning for Retirement Planning for Disability Veterans Benefits

An essential guide to living and dying in Florida. This is a book that will guide everyone through the bureaucracy that has grown up around nursing homes, Social Security, Medicare and all the other details that face many of Florida's elderly. --Lucy Morgan, Senior Correspondent, St. Petersburg Times This is a valuable, up-to-date road map of the complex legal and financial issues faced by senior citizens in Florida. It is well-organized and well-written. It is not, however, a substitute for individual expert advice. It will help individuals focus on areas that apply to their particular circumstances. --Eric Pfeiffer, M.D., Founding Director, Eric Pfeiffer Suncoast Alzheimer's Center, University of South Florida College of Medicine; author of 14 Winning Strategies for Successful Aging This updated version of the Florida Senior Legal Guide is essential reading for all Florida residents that will be dealing with elder care issues. --David M. McGrew, M.D., President, Hospice Palliative Physician Services, LLC About the Author Gregory G. Gay, Esq. is the President of the Nature Coast Law Offices of Gregory G. Gay, P.A. that has law offices in New Port Richey, Spring Hill and Crystal River, Florida. Mr. Gay was admitted to the Florida Bar in 1973. Mr. Gay is Board Certified by the Florida Bar in Wills, Trusts Estates and in Elder Law. He is also Board Certified in Elder Law by the National Elder Law Foundation and is designated by that organization as a Certified Advanced Practitioner. Mr. Gay is a Florida Supreme Court certified circuit court mediator and arbitrator. Mr. Gay received his Bachelor of Science Degree in Accounting and a Juris Doctor Degree from Florida State University. He has also earned a Master of Science Degree in Financial Services from The American College, a Master of Divinity Degree from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary and a Master of Arts in Biblical Studies Degree from Dallas Theological Seminary. Mr. Gay is a past President of the Tampa Bay Planned Giving Council and is a past President of the North Suncoast Estate Planning Council. Mr. Gay is a past president of the West Pasco Bar Association. He is also a past Chairman of the Pasco Hernando Community College Board of Trustees. Mr. Gay is a past President of the New Port Richey Rotary Club and has been awarded a Paul Harris Fellow by this club. Mr. Gay is a member of Idelwild Baptist Church in Tampa, Florida. Mr. Gay serves as a Trustee of Musard Seed International and is a Director of the Community Aging and Retirement Services, Inc. (CARES). He is married to Julia Stokes from Miami and they have two adult children.