Nigel Foster : Foster on EU Law before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Foster on EU Law:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. solid overviewBy AndrewThis text provides a solid overview of the functioning of the European Union. Unfortunately, the EU treaties change so often, so make sure you get the most recent version.

Nigel Foster provides a concise and clear explanation of EU law, offering an accessible entry point to the subject.Foster on EU Law offers an incisive account of the institutions and procedures of the EU alongside focused analysis of key substantive areas such as free movement of goods and services. This clear two-part structure provides students with a solid foundation in the mechanisms and applications of EU law, making it an ideal text for those new to the subject or looking for a concise guide to support further study in the area. This fully updated fifth edition includes extended discussion of key cases, along with new coverage of state aid and expanded coverage of some key areas, including the political context of the EU and EU decision-making. Online Resources Foster on EU Law is also accompanied by an Online Resource Centre which includes: * An interactive timeline and map of the Europe plus video footage to help improve your understanding of the key facts and developments in the history of the Union* Updates to help you stay on top of new case law and developments post-publication* Exam advice from the author, an experienced lecturer and examiner at UK and European universities, to help you maximise your EU law revision from previous edition: "This is a highly readable textbook, presenting a good overview of all core EU law subjects. Highly recommended for first and second year law students." --Eva Kassoti, The Hague University "Foster on EU Law presents a very clear and concise introduction to the subject, which is easy to read and understand. For students it is a great first port of call." --Bruce Wardhaugh, University of Manchester About the Author Nigel Foster, Visiting Professor of European Law, Europa Institut, Saarbrücken and Professor of Law at Bristol Law School at the University of the West of England
