A must have for legal researchBy gregorioGreat little book for finding what you want on the internet and not running up a big bill.Buy this book if you do any Legal Research. These two librarians at one of America's foremost Law Schools have it down. I would not be surprised if the clerks at the Supreme Court have a copy of this book on their desks.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Haven't seen anything else like it. PreciseBy P.H.Decent book. Haven't seen anything else like it. Precise, quick read for attorneys and law students.1 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Kristen FiatoThis is a valuable resource for anyone interested in legal research.

A guide for attorneys to the best free legal sites, and how to effectively use them! The internet is one of the most powerful tools a lawyer can use, and it becomes more indispensable each day. Legal information used in practicing law - cases, statutes, regulations, and more, even foreign and international sources - are there for free on your computer. No monthly charges or download fees or subscriptions needed; for many sources of law, all you need are an internet connection....and this book, to direct you to the best sites and help you use them! Wanita Scroggs and Sally Waters are both law librarians and adjunct professors at Stetson University College of Law in Gulfport, Florida. Ms. Scroggs earned her B.A. from Texas AM University, her J.D. from the Arizona State University Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law, and her M.L.I.S. from the University of South Florida. She is Stetson's Foreign and International Law Librarian. Ms. Waters earned her B.A., J.D., and M.L.S. degrees from the University of South Carolina, and she is Stetson's "Queen of Reference". Both Ms. Scroggs and Ms. Waters teach courses in Advanced Legal Research, and have presented to professional groups, librarians, and others about research methods and sources.
