Andrew Ofoe Amegatcher : Ghanaian Law of Copyright before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Ghanaian Law of Copyright:

Andrew Amegatcher has been an authority on the law of copyright in Ghana for many years. This second edition of the Ghanaian Law of Copyright is not only an academic treatise on the law of copyright generally and as it applies in Ghana, but is an excellent tool for disseminating knowledge of copyright law. Since publication of the first edition a major piece of legislation, PNDC Law 110 1985 on Copyright has been replaced by another, the Copyright Act 2005, Act 690. The second edition includes new topics and a chapter on international copyright, including TRIPS (the Agreement on Trade Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights).
