

Goodall Estate Petition for Review Case No. S208891 California Supreme Court

Samuel H Sloan

Download PDF | ePub | DOC | audiobook | ebooks*

Copyrighted Material

S208891

COURT OF APPEAL NUMBER A137189
San Francisco Superior Court No. PTR-99-273030

SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

BANK OF AMERICA N. A.,

Plaintiff and Respondent,

v.

SAMUEL H. SLOAN,

Objector and Appellant.

SUPREME COURT
FILED

FEB 25 2013

Frank A. McGuire Clerk
Deputy

Goodall Estate Petition for Review Case No. S208891
California Supreme Court

Samuel H. Sloan
Administrator of Estate
of K. Michael Goodall
with Will Annexed
461 Peachstone Terrace
San Rafael CA 94903
(415) 419-5980
917-659-3397
samhsloan@gmail.com

RECEIVED

FEB 26 2013

COURT OF APPEAL
FIRST APPELLATE DISTRICT

Copyrighted Material

 Download

 Read Online

2013-03-05 Original language: English PDF # 1 11.00 x .15 x 8.50l, .39 #File Name: 487187363364 pages |
File size: 22.Mb

Samuel H Sloan : Goodall Estate Petition for Review Case No. S208891 California Supreme Court before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Goodall Estate Petition for Review Case No. S208891 California Supreme Court:

Michael Goodall died on October 5, 2010 in his home known as The Goodall Mansion at 461 Peachstone Terrace in San Rafael, Marin County, California. Petitioner found the Goodall Will among his papers and filed it in Marin County Probate Court in January 2011. On February 1, 2011, Petitioner filed a petition in probate. After consents were obtained from all of the heirs of the Goodall Estate, petitioner petitioned and after two hearings was appointed administrator of the estate. Petitioner had the key to the house, as he has been a resident of the house. However, on February 28, 2011, while petitioner was away for a few days, there was a break-in and burglary in the house. The entire contents of the house was removed including all legal papers and documents of the Goodalls. When the burglary was discovered, 911 was called and this was reported as a burglary. Deputy Anthony Savas of the Marin County Sheriff's Department responded to the call. Deputy Savas said that he had been patrolling the area during the previous days and had observed a large trash dumpster in front of the house with a Spanish guy bringing stuff out of the house and putting it in the dumpster. However, Deputy Savas had not stopped to inquire, as this had seemed to be a routine case of somebody moving out. After discovering that the Goodall Mansion had been burgled, the contents removed and the locks on the doors changed, Petitioner as well as heirs of the Goodall Estate searched for several weeks for the stolen Goodall stuff. Finally, by chance it was located in an Auction House in Alameda. The auction House identified Hamilton Kipp as the person who had brought the Goodall Estate stuff to the auction house. It was later established that Hamilton Kipp is an employee of Bank of America. Hamilton Kipp in turn had been told to break into the house and take all the stuff by James R. Hastings, a Marin County Estate Planning Attorney. Bank of America simply stole all the money and says they will keep fighting this case until the funds are exhausted in attorneys and administration fees. This is one of Four Appeals in just one of three cases involving the Goodall Estate. Petitioner is the Administrator of the Estate of K. Michael Goodall with will annexed. This appointment came in a petition in probate filed in the Marin County Probate Court, Case No. PR 1100596. Sam Sloan was Appointed Administrator of the Estate of K. Michael Goodall with Will Annexed by the Marin County Probate Court in California. Upon receiving his appointment, Sloan discovered that the entire Goodall Estate had been stolen by Bank of America, who wanted to donate the Goodall millions to Guide Dogs for the Blind, leaving the legitimate Goodall heirs with nothing. This appeal is part of a so far two year court battle to save the Goodall Estate from going to the Dogs. Guide Dogs for the Blind has shown itself to be the Epitome of Evil in the charities rackets, preying on wealthy elderly people, getting them to sign away their estates on their death beds on the pretext that their money is going to a noble cause, but instead it is going to an avaricious gang who pay themselves millions of dollars in salaries, and have compiled and accumulated more than $300 million in net assets. If the death bed signatures are not forthcoming, no problem. By expedient means, the signatures are forged. After all: Dead Men Tell No Tales

About the Author Samuel Howard Sloan is an American chess player and book publisher. In 2006, Sloan served on the Executive Board of the United States Chess Federation. In 1970, Sloan established a registered broker-dealer that traded over-the-counter stocks and bonds. Sloan had no formal legal training but orally argued a case before the United States Supreme Court after litigating against the Securities and Exchange Commission over policies regarding the trading of penny stocks. The Court ruled in his favor, 90, concerning his claim that the "tacking" of 10-day summary suspension orders for an indefinite period was an abuse of the agency's authority and a deprivation of due process. SEC vs. Samuel H. Sloan, 436 US 103 (1978)